USE OF OUR WEBSITE

We use cookies on our website. Cookies are small files which are stored on your computer. They are designed to hold a modest amount of data (including personal information) specific to a particular client and website and can be accessed either by the web server or the client's computer. In so far as those cookies are not strictly necessary for the provision of VisionLab's services, we will ask you to consent to our use of cookies when you first visit our website.

In the event that you utilise our website for the purpose of purchases/orders, VisionLab agrees to display reference to cookies and /or similar tracking technologies, such as pixels and web beacons (if applicable), and requests consent for VisionLab collecting your personal information which may include:

- a) IP address, browser, email client type and other similar details;
- b) Tracking website usage and traffic; and
- c) Reports are available to VisionLab when VisionLab sends an email to the client, so VisionLab may collect and review that information

If you consent to VisionLab's use of cookies on our website and later wish to withdraw your consent, you may manage and control VisionLab's privacy controls through your browser, including removing cookies by deleting them from your browser history when you leave the site.
